"Why?"

Visit "Why?" on MotoLyrics.com

I've seen something you never seen.
A tragic society, with no believe.
There's no hope, no way to be free
With no remorse, you've been deceived.
I see them walking hand in hand
Their mind so narrow, no place to expand.
I keep asking myself, why and why?
What is the reason, we still try?

"Why are you standing, standing, standing here
alone... ?
When I'm leaving you and everything behind!"

In blindness, you are walking the way
The long way, that leads you astray.
The same mistake is made by us all,
In this society, the weak will fall.
So is there a meaning, in what we do
You had the chance, didn't you?
I keep asking myself, why and why?
What is the reason, we still try?

"Why are you standing, standing, standing here
alone... ?
When I'm leaving you and everything behind!"
