"Four Eyes"

This is too confusing
What do you want me to do?
Stop with one mistake, only to make a bigger one with you?
A silent ring is gaining on me while I'm stopped to catch my breath
I can't seem to start running
I'm all caught up in a web

If I could change my mind . . .
If I could change your mind . . .
I'd find a new way to see so I could look at you differently

Do you want to give me pressure?
Is that your only goal?
I'd like to tell you how I feel,
But at this point I don't know
This situation has a purpose,
But I'm too dumb to know what
All I know is that I stumbled
I stumbled into a rut

So I guess you'll probably forget me
I guess I'm in square one again
So I guess you're gonna pass me up
I guess I lose again
