Once a dream is born
a voice takes form
to scream new presence.
And life, just like a storm
it strikes, but never thinks to warn us.
Here the dream lives on
the voice will come to speak a new truth.
The storm needed to fall
to find its beauty in silence.

Dreams realized, they harmonize
they sing a new song.
The heart returns to the star
and joy will speak in perfect silence.
It's yours, the stars above

The dream becomes eternal love.

The voice, now pure and new
it finally joins the stars above.
The dream becomes eternal love
