

Cirque Du Soleil "Lifeline"

I walk the Earth
and touch the sky,
I am an angel in your eyes.

Hang on,
everyday is a lifetime.
We all walk a fine line between the Earth and sky.

Hang on,
we're all facing a deadline,
but sometimes
the sun will shine.

Hang on,
we all stand in a long line, seeking answers we never find,
lost at the end of time.

Hang on,
don't let go of the lifeline,
the lifeline,
your hand in mine.

I walk the Earth
and touch the sky,
I am an angel in your eyes.

Hang on,
take a stand at the frontline, don't give up in the meantime, keep reaching for the sky.
