Dont worry about me as ever Im fine
Promise you not to get too hurt this time
As you say, theres forever as time goes anyway
And thats ok, thats ok

But youll never see me on a sunday
Youll never see me on a sunday

Beware that lifes leeches will drain you right out
As theyre blind to the soul and theyre always about
Look at me an example of the soul cut away
Well nearly, well nearly

And youll never see me on a sunday
Youll never see me on a sunday

Oh youll never see me on a sunday
And youll never see me on a sunday

Your ablaze with your dreams and dont cry if you fail Coz like me youll keep searching for some kind of holy grail

As you say theres forever as time goes anyway
But youll never see me on a sunday
