"Why Would I Lie"

Yes, I know. Its strange seeing you again.

Seeing you once more...

Feeling good with him...

"Will I ever forget about you?"

You're asking too much of me

For I am still in love.

(chorus)

Why would I lie

And pretend to have forgotten

Or try and convince myself

Its all over and in the past

Then go and erase you from my mind

Why should I?

Why would I pretend to have forgotten all about you?

Or convince myself that I haven't felt a profound love

Or that I've moved on: left it all behind

I'm trying to forget

Really trying hard to let go

But I can't
