Hey, Hey...

Sing me a song that the world can sing along

And I'll show you a song that stands for living

Sing me a song that the world can sing along

And I'll show you a song from the heart

White, blinding light, that's so bright

It enfolds you

Scream that's your dream, it's so real

It remoulds you

Sing me a song that the world can sing along

And I'll show you a song that stands for living

Sing me a song that the world can sing along

And I'll show you a song from the heart

Yeah, Yeah

White, blinding light, that's so bright

It enfolds you

Sing me a song that the world can sing along

And I'll show you a song that stands for living

Sing me a song that the world can sing along

And I'll show you a song from the heart
