Oh
Never would I have imagined
I'd be here with you tonight
Holding you in my arms as we dance
I gotta tell you it just feels so right

Something about you moves me deep inside my soul
When I look into your eyes
Just in case I haven't already let you know
Here's just a couple of wishes of mine

I want you to stay up talking to me all night long
Call me up out of the blue just to see what's going on
Even if I never see another day with you
I hope you know I appreciate you

Oh
So many things I want to say to you
But the timing's just not right
I don't want to scare you off too soon
So baby be with me tonight
Yeah yeah yeah

Something about you moves me deep inside my soul

When I look into your eyes
Just in case I haven't already let you know
Here's just a couple of wishes of mine

I want you to stay up talking to me all night long
Call me up out of the blue just to see what's going on
Even if I never see another day with you
I hope you know I appreciate you
I said I hope you know I appreciate you

Oh, You
Whoa, whoa

I want you to stay up talking to me all night long
Call me up out of the blue just to see what's going on
Even if I never see another day with you
I hope you know I appreciate you

I said I hope you know I appreciate you
I hope you know I appreciate you
One more time, one more time
I hope you know I appreciate you
