why did it have to end so soon why did you go away although i know it may never come true, i hope to see you some day and i'll always remember those times that we shared So if you're listening from up above, this is my prayer, my prayer

you've brought so much joy to this world of mine whenever i need you you came a friend like you is so hard to find, without you it won't be the same and the minute you try, no one can ever compare so if you're listening from up above, this is my prayer
right now today he has called you to his home and i know i'll make it there some how yea... uh huh

there are so many things that i want you to know so many words to say and when he finally calls me home, i'll walk with you through those gates so please remember me jeramiah i'll see you again i hope you're listening from above, cuz this is and will always be my prayer, my prayer ooooo...ooooo...this is my prayer
