Maybe Life is curious to see what you would do with the gift of being left alive how love how give have spread the higher purpose and cut through all the shuck and jive its only natural
maybe superstitious
to try to find the meaning of greed in the eyes but sometimes we (get down on your knees) but sometimes could ya
sometimes yeah
and thank the whole world your the verse of god for letting you Live out the string
a little longer boy
raise your voice and make a joyful noise
and a gaurentee
but if anything

now that a meteorite has fallen in the chair you just got up to answer the phone will you live every moment like it just might be your last?
or will you still just bitch and moan fate is kind

fate is creul
its termanilly cool
and its random and eruption in your groove
but sometimes get down on your knees sometimes baby
sometimes could ya get down on your knees and find yourself a deeper groove

a little longer boy
raise your voice
and make a joyful noise

aint a gauruntee
but if anything
the string

bridge
who knows if we had angels on our shoulders that night with the devil in the street whos knows if it means we have more work to do but hey baby don't the air taste sweet hey baby, don't the air taste sweet

get down on your knees
and live out the string
yeah yeah yeah
live it out baby
