The only water flows from the Rio Grande
The only water flows from the Rio Grande
Oceans live and try, holding dreams until
They die.
The only water flows from the Rio Grande

(Chorus):

There's a ways till I'm home, don't bother me.
There's a ways till I'm home don't bother me.
Still I'm gonna fall, but the good lord made me tall.
In the River, there's somethin' to be believed.

The endless sand has risen to it's call.
The endless sand has risen to it's call.
See tears from older grains, they may die
Amongst their gains
The endless sand has risen to it's call.

(Chorus):

There's a ways till I'm home, don't bother me.
There's a ways till I'm home don't bother me.
Still I'm gonna fall, but the good lord made me tall.
In the sand there's somethin' to be believed.

Fortunes can be made honestly.
Fortunes can be made honestly.
Don't lay down, till you see what You have found.
Fortunes can be made honestly

(Chorus):

There's a ways till I'm home, don't bother me.
There's a ways till I'm home don't bother me.
Still I'm gonna fall, but the good lord made me tall.
In fortunes there's somethin' to be believed.

(Chorus):

There's a ways till I'm home, don't bother me.
There's a ways till I'm home don't bother me.
Still I'm gonna fall, but the good lord made me tall.
There's somethin' to be believed don't bother me.
