Ha, Ha, Ha, Haa
Yeah, Yeah
I got a girl that boy you can't imagine
She's spending love and giving satisfaction
She blows my mind, her touch is just like fire, oh yeah
She makes the rules, one kiss can take you higher

Come on, Come on, Come on

Chorus: No mater how they try to steel it from me
This fire will burn eternally
What any gots the lean each time that we meet
It's gonna be heat between the sheets
No mater how they try to tar us apart
I know they will kill the flame in her heart
And Baby everytime we manage to meet
It's gonna be heat between the sheets

Some people say that flames are no solution
So with this love they just do a revaluation
You got a fight a fire with fire
So let it burn and live for your desire

Come on, Come on, Come on

Chorus: No mater how they try to steel it from me
This fire will burn eternally
What any gots the lean each time that we meet
It's gonna be heat between the sheets
No mater how they try to tar us apart
I know they will kill the flame in her heart
And Baby everytime we manage to meet
It's gonna be heat between the sheets
I promise you heat between the sheets

Oh Baby, baby when the morning comes
We step outside to watch the rising sun
Then you kiss my lips and I take your hand
Let's go back to bed and we'll started again

Come on, Come on, Come on

Chorus:

No mater how they try to steel it from me
This fire will burn eternally
What any gots the lean each time that we meet
It's gonna be heat between the sheets
No mater how they try to tar us apart
I know they will kill the flame in her heart
And Baby everytime we manage to meet
It's gonna be heat between the sheets
Let it burn each time that we meet
It's gonna be heat between the sheets
I promise you heat between the sheets
