Thanks for being there when I needed you
When I felt so tired and doom
Thanks for helping me understand
Life's sometimes gets out of fun

Your always find the way
To stay so close though you may be far away
To bring your smile
As we live through day by day

Chorus
One look in your eyes
And I am feeling alright
With you in my mind
I can't live through the night
Your always stay so securing my heart
Soul mates that's what we are

Thanks for all the times that you shared with me
Precious moments they will be
Thanks for lending me your ear
When things get too much to pair

Your always find the way
To stay so close though you may be far away
To bring your smile
As we live through day by day

Chorus
One look in your eyes
And I am feeling alright
With you in my mind
I can't live through the night
Your always stay so securing my heart
Soul mates that's what we are

Chorus
One look in your eyes
And I am feeling alright
With you in my mind
I can't live through the night

Your always stay so securing my heart
Soul mates that's what we are
