There's no such thing as saying goodbye
I will go away, but I won't leave you
Love, you have to believe me
Even though it hurts...

I want you to let me go
And that you will go on tomorrow
But if you're lonely or scared
I will be there...

Come as the wind that you feel and the rain
Follow what you do like the light of the moon
Search for me in everything and you will find me
Whisper my name, and I will be there!

See what is invisible
What you believe is true
Just open your eyes
And... I'll be with you
Everything you have to do
Is just believe me on my word

There's no such thing as saying goodbye
Come as the wind that you feel and the rain
Follow what you do like the light of the moon
Search for me in everything and you will find me
Whisper my name, and I will be there!

Look in the sky, look at the sea
Wherever you will walk, I'm walking with you
Every step every moment, wherever you are
Whatever you do, wherever you go
If you need me, whisper my name...and I will be there

There's no such thing as saying goodbye...
