(Chorus) Do what you do,
Do well, Do what you do,
Do well.
Well some time before I came of age
Someone stopped me once to say,
If you don't get on with what you do,
Do what you do best.
Time to specialize - specialize forget the rest.
He said that I was out of my time
So I began to laugh and he replied,
(Chorus) Do what you do,
Do well Do what you do,
Do well.
Well ten years on when I was all alone The same guy Stopped me once again. 'Hey you're the guy I know it's you,
I recognize your eyes This sure is some surprise - some Surprise Hey man I've seen them all and you fumed out the
Best' I had to laugh when I thought of what he said.
(Chorus)
Do what you do, do well
Do what you do, do well
How does it feel be out in the cold?
Going solo.
What will you do when they say you're too old?
Staying single, too nervous to mingle.
Waiting for friends to drop by or maybe phone.
Standing by your window,
(Chorus) Do what you do, do well,
Do what you do, do well, Do what
You do, do well, etc. etc.
