Last night I dreamed that they dropped a bomb
And the seas ran dry and the winds has calmed
The skyscrapers fell and they all turned to dust
Their skeletons of steel were covered in rust

And everything I loved and feared
Had all at once disappeared
Oh everything I loved and feared
Had all at once disappeared

The colours were drained straight from the sky
And nothing living had survived
The mountains were merely removed from the earth
All silver and gold had lost it's worth

And everything I loved and feared
Had all at once disappeared
Oh everything I loved and feared
Had all at once disappeared

I woke from the dream in a cold, cold sweat
I was full of doubt and deep regret
For suddenly it was all so clear to me
There was nothing left in which to believe

And everything i loved and feared
Had all at once disappeared
Oh everything i loved and feared
Had all at once disappeared
