(Mason, Thomas)

Speechless
I wish there were something to say
I drank too much of you
And now you've gone to my head
I'm laughing like a fool
You leave me
Speechless
And words I'm rehearsing all day
Are caught up in the traffic
Getting lost in their way
They're always left unsaid
You leave me
Speechless

Restless
I count every step to the phone
And when I get the nerve to dial
Then you're never home
So here I am alone
And feeling restless

I wanted to say
You're unbelievable
But then I got caught up
On my own reply

If I asked you to stay around
To hear what I might say
Would I see the answers in your eyes

Speechless
I look for the right things to say
Whoever stole my dictionary
Tore out the page
It happens every day
You leave me
Speechless

Speechless

I know that it's all down to you
You see I'm not responsible
I've met my full meen

There's nothing I can do
You leave me
Speechless
