I heard the church bells from afar. And we found each other in the dark. And when the smoke does finally pass, we will rise above all the ash.

Chorus: Cause we're gonna live (X 9) at last.

So bright, the flames burn in the heart, that we found each other in the dark. My peace, out in the wilderness, we are fighting to survive and convalesce

Chorus: We're gonna live (X 9) like the rest.

Feel the blacks of these waters, and the cold lonely air. On the rock at the seas, a vesicle in deep disrepair. And I swore they started singing, but then come, rejoice. I can still hear your voice.

Then I heard the church bells from afar. But we found each other in the dark.
