Now the way it went
Got me in this messed up predicament
'Cause I ain't know how to be monogamous
I was caught in the wrong just walkin'
Through the mall with this shorty on my arm
Now I played the fool

Sittin' in the sneaker store buyin' shoes
My girl's best friend came strolling through
I tried to turn away but I moved too late
'Cause she already saw my face
I was hopin' she

Didn't really get a good look at me
She walked out the store so casually
I thought that I was fine
Till she called me later on with my girl on the line

She'd seen me
Called me up on the three way
Givin' my girl the whole replay
Has it happened to you, has it happened to you?

She'd seen me
Called me up on the three way
Givin' my girl the whole replay
Tell me what to do?

Now I tried to lie
Sayin' that it must have been some other guy
You know your friends jealous of you and I
'Cause she got a man so she's all up in our business
Shut up and let me finish girl you crushin' me

Actin' like you ain't got no trust in me
I thought you said that you was in love with me
Well act you know me and hang up the phone
So your girlie was alone but she ain't quit

The more I tried to lie, the angrier she'd get
Told me it was over with us, that's it
Word to all men

If your goin' be out creepin', look out for her friend

She'd seen me
Called me up on the three way
Givin' my girl the whole replay
Has it happened to you, has it happened to you?

She'd seen me
Called me up on the three way
Givin' my girl the whole replay
Tell me what to do?

Now ladies know how to stick together, together
No matter what you say you ain't goin'
Now brothas better have they stuff together together
'Cause she always goin' believe her friend
She always goin' to believe her friend

She'd seen me
Called me up on the three way
Givin' my girl the whole replay
Has it happened to you, has it happened to you?

She'd seen me
Called me up on the three way
Givin' my girl the whole replay
Tell me what to do? Yeah

What, what?
Let's see how baby
Yeah let's see how baby
[Incomprehensible]
