Oh I saw stars falling all around her head
Red, gold, and blue
Sherry Fraser where are you
'Cause I saw stars falling all around your head
When we were young
Sherry Fraser where have you gone
We're all wondering
When will you come back
And play...some day
Sherry yeah
The mad hatter he waits for Alice
To come to tea again
He waits forever for his old lover

And always wonderin'
Will I see stars falling all around your head
When you return Sherry Fraser what have you learned
And we're all wondering
When will you come back
And play...some day
And please do come back
And play...some day
Please do come back
And play...some day
Sherry yeah
