"Its been a while since you carried a smile
That's okay,
You don't need one anyway
I see you on the edge
Driving to understand
But I know that that's okay
You can jump anyway
(chorus)
What does all this come to
What does all this come to in the end
Is there no end
Eternity
Steals my soul
Takes me where I want to go
You look me in the face across that line
And say why didn't you tell me?
I'm sorry, I wasn't thinking
A thousand needles pearce my heart
As you turn around and leave me
Saying you can do anything
(chorus)
You still have a chance to turn around
And look at me, I see now
I can scream
Eternity
Steals my soul
Takes me where I want to go
