I guess I'll never see you again
I guess our everything is an end
And all you have to do is say my name
But baby if you tried to now
It would only cause me pain

I guess these memories aren't my friend
I thought these memories wouldn't end
And all this equity I've built to be with you
Just all gone to waste
'Cause you don't want to face the truth

I love you but you don't love me
All I want to know
Is if you're sitting at home just like me
You've sent me boy you've rent me down
So down

The phone ain't ringing here anymore
My best friend that's what you were for
But are you waiting silently like me
Just pretending you don't care any
Are you doing that to me

I love you but you don't love me
All I want to know
Is if you're sitting at home just like me
You've sent me boy you've rent me down
So down

I guess I'll never see you again
I guess our everything is an end

I love you but you don't love me
All I want to know
Is if you're sitting at home just like me
You've sent me boy you've rent me down
So down
