May the words you speak
mean nothing to me Mean nothing at all
so I won't feel the pain
And you do not understand, it's here in my heart
it's here that I cry.
Don't you go away
You can't deny it

And you speak in such a way that it doesn't faze you Well, it fazes me

Are you scared of me?

(musical interlude)

Speak only to me and don't hear my words
Don't see me anymore
Just try, see through my past
If only you'd let me.
Just give me a chance
Let me endure to the end
You can't deny it
