You looked at me
And we started talking
It was more beautiful
So was that time
And when we made vows
The rain didn't touch me

The rain didn't touch me
Until you let go of me

Where are you now
Where were you
When I was falling
And who are you now
Who are you now
That it's over over over

Well I wanted you
You wanted me too
Well I don't know where that went
Or where it came from
But when we touch
It was more beautiful
Well I was more beautiful
When you looked at me

Where are you now
Where were you
When I was falling falling
Who are you now
Who are you now
That it's over over over

Some people say
Life is a mystery
I want to solve it
But it can't be forced
The only thing is
No one can tell me
No one can tell me
Until I have loved

Where are you now
Where were you
When I was falling falling
And who are you now
Who are you now
That it's over over

Where are you now
Where were you
When I was falling falling
Who are you now
Who are you now
I don't know you
Oh now it's over over over
