The greatest love
I have ever found
Was like a treasure
Buried in a field of stones

Hidden there
In the hardened ground
Was a gift more precious than gold

So, I gave
All I owned
Just to make it mine

No price is too great
No mountain, too high
No distance, too far
No ocean is too wide

All my world is in You
I will never leave Your side
And this flame will never die

The finest love
I have ever known
Was like a pearl
That many dream they'll find

Oh, what joy
When I held that love
And I know that it could be mine

So, I gave
All I owned
Just to make it mine

No price is too great
No mountain, too high
No distance, too far
No ocean is too wide

All my world is in You
I will never leave Your side

This flame will never die

I believe
That a love like this
Will never come to an end

All I have
And all my life
I'd give it all again

No price is too great
No mountain, too high
No distance, too far
No ocean is too wide

All my world is in You
I will never leave Your side
And this flame will never die

All my world is in You
