I listen as the wind is blowing change
Across my window pane
I think about the things that Might've been
And if I'll see you again
I'll see you again
Should you find this thing's worth talking about
Then you know I'll be near
And if you find this thing's work working it out
Then you know, I will be here
'Cause we may never have this day again
So let us love
Like we could love
We may never pass this way again
So let us love, love, love
Like we could love
'Cause ain't that all we really have
At the close of the day
The close of the day
Isn't it the best that we can give
And ain't it all we can take
All that remains
If you find you need just a little more time
Then you do what you must do
Should you find you need a hand to hold
I'll be holding on, holding on for you
Holding on for you
'Cause we may never have this day again
So let us love
Like we could love
We may never pass this way again
So let us love, love, love
I say a prayer for love tonight
That we'll be stronger than the winds of change that blow
Maybe you'll free your soul tonight
And should you find we need just another try
You know I'll be here
I know, you know
We may never have this day again
So let us love

like we could love
'Cause we may never pass this way again
So let us love, love, love
Like we should love
'Cause we may never pass this way again
So let us love, love, love
Like we could love
