You said that you would stay committed - You even gave your solemn word - Looking back it seemed to simple then - When passion was your nerve - Standing at a crossroads - It's either search or fight - Go looking for a new love - Or stay and make this one right

Chorus:

What you feel - May be real - But that doesn't make it wrong or right - Vows you've made - Can't be vague - Commitment is black and white - Oh, what you're feeling isn't right

I've heard that love is sacrificial - It's a decision of the will - Sometimes you have to push those feelings - Beyond the point of what you feel - Love in it's purity - Is labor of the heart - And it will always stand the test - When feelings fall apart

(Chorus)

What you're feeling isn't right - What you're feeling isn't right

(Chorus)

(Chorus)
