

City Of Caterpillar "Fucking Hero"

The biggest reason that makes the sound, memorable episodes by themselves are found by kissing or frowns or interior fucking laughs. So explain yourself. Pick your purpose. Is it honest love or just honest reactions? 3 months of the honest truth. 3 months for 3 cruel words. You made me a hero. The end is written clear. Softly spoken flirtation fades to a bitter night air. We all know that winter. Stumble slipping to slumber. And I've torn out my final pages so those words I'll never have to hear. Those words I'll never ever have to hear again. You made me a fucking hero.
