This must be my lucky day baby's back again
Said he'd never go away baby's back again Throw my troubles to the wind happiness come right on in Cause baby's back again

Eyes there'll never be another teardrop lips he's waiting just a kiss away
The future looks so bright everything's alright since my baby's home again to stay
This must be my lucky day...
[steel]
I never saw the moon shine so brightly all the stars came out to shine for me
He said he still loved me that's all I need to know Cause that's the way real love has to be
This must be my lucky day...
My baby's back again
