Are you listening Billy Christian if you are then come on home

Everything is like you left that I spent all my time alone Every minute here without you passes like a hundred years

Come on home if you're listening Billy dear

Billy Christian now I know that you're the wild and wandering kind

I promise I'll stick by you if you ever change your mind
I still love you and I want you dear no matter where you go

I need you Billy Christian heaven knows

No one seems to understand me and I always ask 'em why

Don't they know I love you up until the day I die

Will you Billy Christian do you ever hear this song

Billy Christian don't you know you're welcome home

Are you listening Billy Christian...

Come on home if you're listening Billy dear
