Some day some way you'll pay for my broken heart
Some time you'll find your pretty dreams torn apart
So go ahead and laugh at my tears that's alright
But when you notice some might hear you some night You'll be lonely remembering me and so blue and broken hearted too
[ guitar ]
Fly high and lie about the things that you do
Don't care just tear my hopes and dreams right in two
And go ahead and make a big fool out of me You'll be surprised at who fool will be You'll be lonely remembering me and so blue and
broken hearted too
And broken hearted too
