A color blend in, so sincere.
Delusion directs the hand it fears.
A brief structure so secure, conformity breaks all the rules.
Accept your alliance.
Accept your descendants.
Accept your preprogrammed labeled imprint.
Accept their expectations.
Accept their condemnations.
Accept preconceived behavioural actions.
Logical progression.
Directed obsession.
It's all laid out before your eyes.
Blasts of sound, flashes of light.
It's all laid out before your mind.
Follow the words and you will survive.
No chance for redemption, perpetual damnation.
No chance for independence, perpetual enslavement.
No chance to defy this.
No chance to destroy this.
The problem lies in the minds affected.
To realize they are afflicted.
External dependency.
Internal deformity.
External dependency.
Internal deformity.
