

Margin Of Error "Deeper Into You"

Looking into these cold eyes.
The darkness consumes and terrifies.
No secrets, no emotion never seeping through.
A burst of rage, a disturbing mind.
Try to keep it pacified.
As slowly the claws dig deeper into you.
Deeper into you.
A silent love decays above.
A vocal hate let's the world relate.
In your securities now you are protected.
Crawling out of the darkest secret.
The guilt inside keeps it pacified.
As slowly the claws dig deeper into you.
Deeper into you.
Try to find a way to believe it's something.
Try to find a way to believe it's nothing.
Try to find a way to believe it's for real.
Try to find a way it's all real.
An array of vicious lies.
Perceived with mindless eyes.
If you defect you'll be left behind.
An arsenal of rights defied.
Destroyed as soon as the mind is ripe.
As slowly the claws dig deeper into you.
