Arrive just in time, can you feel it all slipping away?
Decide just in time, can you feel it all falling away?
Exist in this trance, can you dream awake?
It's hard too, relief comes in habitual circumstance.
Resist. Try. Detest. Lie.
Belief is only the first step.
So why does this guilt exist inside?
Preprogrammed reaction, discipline, refine.
Destruction ensures corrupting minds.
Realization begins, deploy rejection.
Intoxicating illusion mind set in. Prolonging.
The reason this all began.
Your desire means nothing in light of this.
An infinity of regret.
So small, insignificant.
We scream into this abyss.
A speck upon the surface.
Yet arrogance won't relent.
Looking through these eyes.
Clear the phase of human life.
We fade from the light.
Darkness the only friend of ancient lives.
