I got a house full of movies my friends
And a cold wind is blowin'
Through my basement walls
So why would I go outside?
Tell me why would I go outside?
I got you
I got a house full of books about trains
And a highway of board games
To play when I'm sick
So why would I go outside?
Tell me why would I go outside?
I got you
I got a feeling that somethin's wrong
And I can't seem
To shake it
Oh, no, no
I want to go outside...
Yeah, I want to go outside
I really want to go outside
I do
Yeah I want to go outside
I really want to go outside
I really want you to go outside
I want to show you the outside
