I didn't know what I was doing
I didn't know if I cared.
As I recall, it was my birthday
and you were just standing there.
I never know if I'm dreaming,
I never know if I'm awake:
All I know is it feels sunny.

If you leave me in the lurch
without a penny to my name,
I'm gonna run to you
and gobble you up.

You simulated a baby
with a pillow in your shirt
and danced around the hotel naked.
I said I never know if you're serious
or if you're putting me on,
but I guess it really doesn't matter.

If you kick me to the curb,
it's probably just what i deserve,
but I'm gonna run to you
and gobble you up.

If you leave me in the lurch
without a penny to my name,
I'm gonna run to you
and gobble you up.

I never know if I love you,
but I'm pretty sure that I do:
All I know is that it feels sunny.

I never know if you love me,
but you're believing you do:
All I know is it's gotten sunny.
