I caught a bad case of the shivers
I caught a bad case of the blues
And I've got some bad news for you
Some bad news for you

I was in trouble with the law
Serious trouble with the law
And I want to get you alone
Peel off the clothes

Evelyn, your spine cracks like a wineglass
Evelyn, your spine cracks
Evelyn, your spine cracks like a wineglass
Evelyn, your spine cracks

I was a lonely captive of your silhouette
And I am bugging so pass me the slug
And I want to gouge out your eyes, splinter your spine
I want to gouge out your eyes, splinter your spine

Evelyn, your skull pops like a woman
Evelyn, your skull pops
Evelyn, your skull pops like a woman
Evelyn
