I gotta go and you're talking in code
Saying I know where you've been
And I know where you go
But I've been tired from the minute I woke
And I stopped listening the moment you spoke
And said
I'm long gone
Yeah... I'm long gone

And I'm sleeping alone...
In this house I don't own
Cause if you're touring your mind
You'll get lost everytime
You'll sing me sad songs to keep me awake
In that bedroom that we hid away
Baby, I'm long gone.
Yeah... I'm long gone.

And your voice cracks with the like a piano you keep moving... where are you going?
Baby, we're long gone
Yeah, we're long gone
