Somebody's gonna love you
Sombobody oughta lay you out
Don't give it away
Cause I need you the most
When I'm half of what I was
When I was in your room

And don't pick up the phone
And don't answer the door
Cause those villians wan't your blood
And they're gonna get it

Your mother is a vampire
And she sucked your old man's life away
Turn everything off
And just cover your neck
Cause life is full of your regrets
And I should be one

Try telling me off
Try slamming the door
And tell me I'm not worth your time
Or the breath I'm breathing

Don't throw it away
Old calica queen
Cause now your meerly a machine
And not a person

Try telling me off
Try slamming the door
And tell me I'm not worth your time
Or the breath I'm breathing
