Everytime i sense him
i start to lose my mind i hold my stare n so does he all the answers i have to find.
The way he makes me feel when i glance into his eyes is unexplainable,incredible hes got me hypnotized.
There was a time though when me n him were real but i lost the chance n regret it hes something i need to feel.
I lay awake at night n imagine wats it like to kiss n touch him gently n clutch his hand tight Yes,we are best friends but friends are not enough because day after day,night after night friends turn into love.
Never thought i could feel so much passion inside of me i need to get next to him he needs to set me free

Bridge: Whats possessed me to obsess like this?
Because...

Chorus:
All the compliments in the world couldnt save me
For his lust for me has died
he doesnt know what hes doing to me even through the hints ive tried N everytime he tells me another secret im honoured he can trust me n i think maybe,just maybe he startin to love me instead
n he needs me like i need him,but then i face reality because.....he dont want me

Its like a 3-way love everytime he finds someone new but i act like nothings up i just dont know what to do.

Ive hid my devotion for so long i cant take it anymore sittin here singin this song how long can i go on for??
Hes way too good for me hes outta my league
im in out of my head
hes got me intrigued
Keep tellin myself
today will be the day then im broken down to tears cuz i kno the days so far away

:Bridge: Whats possessed me to obsess like this?
Because...

:Chorus:
All the compliments in the world couldnt save me
For his lust for me has died
N everytime he tells me another secret
im honoured he can trust me
n i think maybe,just maybe he startin to love me
n he needs me like i need him,but then i reality
because.....he dont want me

I see your name
I smell your scent
I hear your voice
In harmarnous content
I see your smile
I touch your hand
I laugh with you
Im in demand

Your everything i want baby,why cant you see The wanting and needing tht you gave to me
One day without a trace of you is tragical hell Look at me im helpless in love ive deeply fell!!!!

:Repeat Chorus:

Posessin me to obsess,yeh Posessin me to obsess,yeh (Talk: Why? why do i need you so bad?)

Posessin me to obsess,yeh(Talk: Look,im standing here,a fool in the palm of you hand)
Posessin me to obsess,yeh(Talk: Im sorry,cant fight it no more)
Posessin me to obsess,yeh(Talk: Friendships change)

:Talk:

Shocking,i know but i cant go on seeing you with girls beleiving everythings alright my big pantomime,my big storm you dont know what i go through when i lay thinking about you at night
your by far my closest friend n i love you so much but for time now until the end i need to feel your touch so if you ever hear this song or at least read the words youll know how much ive longed n that i love you more then anythin in the world

:Whisper:

He dont want me.....
