Do you still remember twenty five of December
You told me forever, you and I would be together
The memory still lingers, the diamond, my finger
A promise that you'd break, believing it was my mistake

The house, the dreams, the plans it seems
We had to let the picture fade
And so unfair, but it was clear
We had to go out separate ways

I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, I used to know
Something tells me that you've changed
Oh oh, baby I wonder

Can't lie you've cross my mind sometimes
That's why I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, I wonder, I wonder, I wonder

I find my self missing the flowers that you'd bring
I thought you were my king, so why am I here reminiscing
It's not that I'm hoping to fix what's been broken
But something so deep is not forgotten easily

I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, I used to know
Something tells me that you've changed
Oh oh, baby I wonder

Can't lie you've cross my mind sometimes
That's why I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, I wonder, I wonder, I wonder

I know that you might be loving someone new
But boy I bet that you still think about me too Even though I know that things could never be the same
I think it's alright, for me to wonder what you're like
Nowadays

I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, I used to know
Something tells me that you've changed
Oh oh, baby I wonder

Can't lie you've cross my mind sometimes
That's why I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, baby I wonder

I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, I used to know
Something tells me that you've changed
Oh oh, baby I wonder

Can't lie you've cross my mind sometimes
That's why I wonder what you're like nowadays
Oh oh, I wonder, I wonder, I wonder

Nowadays, what you're like nowadays
I'm wondering
Nowadays, what you're like nowadays

Nowadays, what you're like nowadays
I'm wondering
Nowadays, what you're like nowadays

Something tells me that you've changed
I wonder what you're like nowadays
