Seems like lately you're far away
Even when you're sitting near
Drives me crazy, that you don't seem to care
Feels so lonely, I know that something's wrong
I can tell with just a touch
I'm not the only one you're thinking of

Why do you say that you're mine
When it's plain to see
Your past ain't too far behind
Now it's catching up to me

Didn't know every time that you said, "We"
You knew she was still around
Boy, I thought it was only you and me
Can't you see that there's a crowd

Didn't know when you said we'd always be
You were really talking 'bout
We'd always be you and me and she
Can't you see that there's a crowd

Left unspoken, then when you gave your heart
I wouldn't have to share
Now mine's broken and you know that's unfair
When you were so blessed, I gave you everything
My heart, my soul, my time
Wish I would've known this was all built on lies

Why do you say that you're mine
When it's plain to see
Your past ain't too far behind
Now it's catching up to me

Didn't know every time that you said, "We"
You knew she was still around
Boy, I thought it was only you and me
Can't you see that there's a crowd

Didn't know when you said we'd always be
You were really talking 'bout
We'd always be you and me and she

Can't you see that three's a crowd

Can't you see that three's a crowd
Can't you see that three's a crowd

Didn't know when you said we'd always be
You were really talking 'bout
We'd always be you and me and she
Can't you see that three's a crowd

That's why I've got to let you go
You can't choose, so baby, I'll have to Tell you how it's gonna be
Now when you think of me
It can't be part of we

Didn't know every time that you said, "We"
You knew she was still around
Boy, I thought it was only you and me
Can't you see that three's a crowd

Didn't know when you said we'd always be
You were really talking 'bout
We'd always be you and me and she
Can't you see that three's a crowd

Didn't know every time that you said, "We"
You knew she was still around
Boy, I thought it was only you and me
Can't you see that three's a crowd

Didn't know when you said we'd always be
You were really talking 'bout
We'd always be you and me and she
Can't you see that three's a crowd

Didn't know every time that you said, "We"
You knew she was still around
Boy, I thought it was only you and me
Can't you see that three's a crowd

Didn't know when you said we'd always be
You were really talking 'bout
We'd always be you and me and she
Can't you see that three's a crowd

There's no one for me
Always she's around
