Memories frozen in a picture frame
Days go wrong, things will never be the same
Anymore? thoughts to you and my life will never live
How can I pull through, when you left too soon?

*I believe a part of you will always stay with me
I can feel the images of you will never fade away
But I can't go on Pretending everything can be the way it was Can't you see me? when I'm inconsolable*
I'm inconsolable...

I wish I'd known better, time was running out
This guilt I'm left with is more than I can describe

And I keep on calling your name just to feel that I'm alive
In this empty space, you can never be replaced

REPEAT *

Everyday I try to carry on Everyday I try to find the meaning
Being in a place where I'm alone and cold as can be
If I could take it back to yesterday
But you're forever gone, it's inconceivable
It's all just unacceptable

Memories frozen in a picture frame
How can I pull through, when you left too soon

I believe #a part of you will always stay with me
I can feel the images of you will never fade away
But I can't go on pretending everything can be the way it was
Can't you hear me?# when I'm inconsolable

REPEAT #

I'm inconsolable
