Been a long long time
And you know I've been waiting
Been a long hard climb
And you know I've been spending

All my days alone
Here with my silent phone
Looking up your name
Hoping you fell the same
Way you used to

It's an old old song
Everyone keeps on playing
About a love gone wrong
And I hear what it's saying

Spending days alone
Here with my silent phone
Looking up your name
Hoping you fell the same
Way you used to

Down in the crowd you laugh loud
I walk in as you walk out
Can't think of something to say
I keep trying to seem the same way
I used to

Spending days alone
Here with my silent phone
Looking up your name
Hoping you fell the same
Spending days alone
here with my silent phone
Looking up your name

Way you used to
