When they see her, all they see is, their little girl
And who would harm her, and who would not, love her
But if u look into her eyes
You'll see the pain she hides inside

Chorus:

Nobody knows - her smiles are fake
Nobody knows - she lies awake
Nobody knows - how much she'll take
Before to long she's bound to break
But I just hope it's not to late

No one sees it , keep our eyes shut, we just don't dear
Then who's to blame, cause the wolfpack feeds on fear
And as she cries her self to sleep
She prays the Lord her soul to keep

Chorus:

Nobody knows - her smiles are fake
Nobody knows - she lies awake
Nobody knows - how much she'll take
Before to long she's bound to break
But I just hope it's not to late

Bridge:

She keeps hiding, from the one's she love
So ashamed of what's been going on
So she only cries alone

Chorus:

Nobody knows - her smiles are fake
Nobody knows - she lies awake
Nobody knows - how much she'll take
Before to long she's bound to break
But I just hope it's not to late
