"Anybody Out There"

In the cold of the night
The fire burns bright
You long for the unseen

On the edge of the sea
Your thoughts run deep
You long for a place you've never been

Is anybody there?
Is anybody there
You cry to the full moon

As your thoughts run wild
Like the thoughts of a child
You wonder if you'll be there soon

I say, slow me down, slow me down
I want to hear the sound, slow me down

Is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?
Oh, is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?

I sing, is anybody out there?
Is anybody, anybody

Here I stand
Letter in my hand
The letter that you sent to me

But as I turn each page
Like the turning of a wave
I feel you turning me

And I sing, slow me down, slow me down
I want to hear the sound, slow

Is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?
Oh, is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?

Oh, is anybody out there?
Is anybody, anybody

I don't know anything no more
I don't know anything

Is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?

Oh, is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?
Is anybody out there?
Is anybody, anybody

I can hear the strings
I can hear the strings
I can hear the strings
I can hear the strings

I can hear the strings
I can hear the strings
I can hear the strings
I can hear the strings

Calling, calling, calling
Calling, calling, calling, calling me
