Into each life a little rain must fall
You can let it spoil your plans and not live life at
All
But he hurt you and I know you don't want to hear me
Preaching
When you face your deepest fears

Some rise when they fall
Making fools of us all
Seeing good in everything
You can throw love away
But you can't love in vain
Something grows from every teardrop
So give all you got

To wounded hearts and judgement clouded eyed
The sun don't seem to want to break through dirty skies
But you're hanging there even if it's by a thread
And it ain't broke it's the best chance you're gonna
Get

Some rise when they fall
Making fools of us all
Seeing good in everything
You can throw love away
But you can't love in vain
Something grows from every teardrop

So don't give up don't run away
Don't be scared it's only change
You're near the bottom almost here
Through the pain and through the tears
Learn to face the throws of love
Choose one who be worthy of
All you are, heart and soul
Take him with you where you go

Counting your own blessings
Learning your own lessons
Go where the light begins
It begins

Some rise when they fall
Making fools of us all
Seeing good in everything
You can throw love away
But you can't love in vain
Something grows from every teardrop

So give all you got, give all you got, give all you got
See the good in everything
Give all you got, give all you got, give all you got

Some rise when they fall
Making fools of us all
