

Maria Mena

"Patience"

Visit "Patience" on MotoLyrics.com

Damn you for trusting me
what's wrong with you?
I'll work for nothing less.

Damn you for accepting my immaturity
when I scream for silence child, I'll work for nothing less.

I need patience, and someone strong enough to hold
my breath for me until the smoke clears.

I need patience, and time to think before I speak, for
when I'm short of breath, I tend to lie.

Damn you for letting me sleep till noon
and get away with it.
I'll work for nothing less.

Damn you for keeping quiet when I like to
I won't work for anything less.
I need patience, and someone strong enough to hold
my breath for me until the smoke clears.

I need patience, and time to think before I speak, for
when I'm short of breath, I tend to lie.

Ahhhhh, ahhhhh, aaaah...

I need patience, and someone strong enough to hold
my breath for me until the smoke clears.

I need patience, and time to think before I speak, for
when I'm short of breath, I tend to lie.

I need patience, and time to think before I speak, for
when I'm short of breath, I tend to lie

Visit Maria Mena page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.