in 2 minutes and 10 hours you will call me up and say that you have to leave me but I still don't know that so I look at the stars and I smile I'm happy
in 2 minutes and 10 hours
you will call me and that will be the last thing I hear from you but I still don't know that
I'm happy

I look into the mirror and laugh you said that you had something important to say I picture myself in that long white dress

in 2 minutes and 10 hours I will look at the reciever and hear the song from you crying
but I still don't know that so I look at ballons and I laugh I'm happy
