"Suspicion"

I run along with my suspicion
We are hand in hand smiling
Kissing under trees and under stars
Never let anybody into our house

I married my suspicion last year
We have been very happy every since
If you want to talk to me
Talk to my suspicion first

I run along with my suspicion
I am sorry, i am not allowed to believe
I trust my suspicion no reason to go
Behind the mask

I married my suspicion last year
We have been very happy every since
If you want to talk to me
Talk to my suspicion first

I ran along with my suspicion
Lately things have started to change
My heart has become cold and quiet
No one is calling, no one comes in

I call to ask for separation
Maybe it is better that we live apart
For some time
It's good to have some reservation
I think i may have crossed the Line, though...
